SIX-MEN TEAMS PLAY FAST HOCKEY AT

ities of the new six-men-a-side hockey game was given last night at the St. Nicholas Rink when the Irish-Americans defeated the champion Hockey Club by a score of 6 to 5. The old seven-men-a-side game can't be compared with the new way for speed and excitement, and when the spectators left the Rink they were generally volcing opinions to the effect that they'll not miss another one of the amateur hockey series if they can help it.

Hockey, with the rover missing, certainly makes the pastime faster. The men are not in each other's way like they were before, and there aren't so many collisions and splits to slow up the fun.

The first period wasn't any better than the ordinary game. The Irish-Americans played the superior bockey snd when the first twenty minutes were up they led by the scant margin of a goal, the tally being 4 to 3 in their favor.

It was in the second half that the real sport was seen, and the skating and the chasing of the rubber as so fast that the spectators could have believe that the same men were buttling that were seen in the opening half. It was nip and tuck all the time, the Irish-Americans finally caging the winning tally in the last five minutes of play, and for the remainder of the game they played on the defensive. The Hockey Ciub, try as they would, weren't able to even up matters.

Jack McGrath, right wing of the winners, was the star of the night. Of the six tallies made by his side he scored four of them. He was all over the rink, being mixed up in every scrimmage and frequently all by his lonesome nursed the puck down the glassy floor until he caged it. His playing was easily the best individual performance of the season. Harmon and Brown made the other two points for the winners.

Johnny Coulon, the bantamweight champion, is signed up by Fred Bonner to meet Eddle Wallace, the Brooklyn bantamweight, for ten rounds at the leving A. C. of Brooklyn on the living A. C. of Brooklyn on the night of March 3. This will be Coulon's first appearance in a bout in this vicinity since he boxed Charley Goldman in Brooklyn, Nov. 29, 1912.

Young Mike Donovan of this city and Tommy Teague of Brooklyn, mid-dleweight chamipon of the navy, have signed articles of agreement calling for them to battle in a ten-round contest at the Broadway Sporting Club of Brocklyn on Saturday evening, Feb. 21.

Jimmy Clabby, the Milwaukee mid-dleweight, whom Leach Cross claims can defeat Mike Gibbons, is a 2 to 1 favorite in the betting over Sailor Pe-troskey for their twenty-round bout at Vernon, Cal., to-morrow night. Af-ter this bout Clabby is coming to New York for fights. York for fights.

I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Yegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."—Miss Estella Maguire, 110 Thwing St., St. Clair, Pa.
